Democratic Candidate for PRESIDENTIAL ELECTOR

M. J. Dougherty, democratic candidate for presidential elector, is one of the most prominent members of the bar in Maricopa county. He has occupied a high place in civic life of his community, and is heartily interested in its advancement. He was a member of the Arizona delegation to the Democratic National Convention in St. Louis and was Arizona's member of the platform committee.

He has never sought an office, though always an active worker for the democratic party. As his practice is heavy, he will not be able to make a campaign of the state, to meet the voters personally.

Before coming to Arizona, he was prominent in educational work. He has been a teacher, principal, school superintendent and instructor in college. He has lived in Arizona for eight years, and in that time has been closely identified with numerous organizations of this county, working for the betterment of the Salt River Valley.

PHILS DOWN NOTCH

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]

CHICAGO, Sept. 9.—Poll Perritt

in front by virtue of the Robins'

win over Boston and the double defeat handed the Champions by Perritt and the Giants. One and one-half games now separate the Phillies from the top, while the Braves are in third place, 4 1/2 games behind Brooklyn. Standing of the leaders:

gained half a game on Boston

leaders in the American league,

through their victories, while the Red Sox were held to an even break by Washington. Detroit is now only one game behind the leaders and Chicago is only a game and a half from the top.

Incidentally, the result practically put St. Louis out of the hunt, as
